Volume 36

The Senior Class Officers: President — Michael Wagner, Vice President — Cindy Cucinotta, Treasurer — Kira McCarthy, Secretary — Jason Araujo, and Student Council Representative — Maureen Kelleher

This is. . .

the way we are. Over the past four years at Norton High School we have developed certain characteristic traits that make us the distinct individuals we are. Open minded, independent, unique, enthusiastic, sincere, and optimistic; these are just a few of the attributes that define not only our personalities, but also our attitudes and our way of life. We've learned these qualities through our teachers, parents, friends and peers. All that we can do will shape our lives in the future. Fortunately, the way we are now will be the foundation for all that we will learn, all that we will achieve, and all that we will become.

With the determination of a first place finish, Jason Aroujo concentrates as he prepares for the start of his 100 meters.

"Are you gonna remember where we sat after we graduate?" Mike Wagner and Josh Ramsey ask Mr. Bortek.

You won't have to even check this paper. It's an A all the way!", exclaims Casey Murray.

What do you mean? This is a fashion statement!", states Russell Chancey, showing one of his award-winning faces.

The harmonious sounds of a Christmas carol sung by Jill Larocque and Rob Koch ring through the halls of the school.

The girls soccer team dressed up as football players in their skit which they put on at the Homecoming Pep Rally. Pictured are Becca Dennett, Randi Carine, Shelby Martel, and Jaime Precourt.

. . . A Wonderful Night

The 1992 Junior/Senior Prom was an enormous success, with over 240 students in attendance. Lombardo's provided the ultimate setting for the most anticipated social event of the year, the Junior/Senior Prom "Wonderful Tonight". Adding to the excitement was the selection of the Junior and Senior Court and the King and Queen. The Junior Court members, selected by the judges, were Dawn Allen, Stephanie Drunsic, Kim Marks, and Jessica Ronald, while the Senior Court consisted of Lisa Giordano, Jeanette Landon, Tina Thompson, and Julianna Wheeler. Reigning over the festivities were King, Paul Staffier, and Queen, Kristen Dumont. The prom truly was an unforgettably, wonderful night.

All of the gorgeous dresses and the fancy tuxedos make a picture perfect memory. The prom court and their escorts consisted of Darrel Calhoun, Dawn Allen, Brian Murphy, Stephanie Drunsic, Bill Cady, Kim Marks, Dave Medeiros, Jessica Ronald, Queen Kristen Dumont, King Paul Staffier, Lisa Giordano, Donald Powers, Jeannette Landon, Jim Mitchell, Tina Thompson, Anthony Roma, Julianna Wheeler, and Keith Johnson.

Relaxation is the key to having a good time. Tom Howell laughs and relaxes after a night of fun and dance.

As they wait for dinner to be served, Brian Scanlon, Keri Charles, and Amy Frazier take a break from visiting everyone.

"Flash them pearly whites." Jason Briggs and Cindy Cucinotta sweep up the dance floor of Lombardo's.

After being named to the Junior Court, Kim Marks receives her flowers from Assistant Principal, Mr. Gorman.

Dancing the royal waltz were the crowned King Paul Staffier and Queen Kristen Dumant.

Excited by the success of the prom, the class advisors were all smiles. They are Mr. Maher, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Russell, and Mr. Hickey.

An excited Stephanie Drunsic accepts her rose after being named to the Junior Court.

The members of the Junior Court and their escorts pose for yet another "candid": Darrell Calhoun, Stephanie Drunsic, Dawn Allen, Brian Murphy, Bill Cady, Kim Marks, Dave Medeiros, and Jessica Ronald.

THESE ARE OUR...

"Alriiiight!!!" Jason Joyce celebrates after another thrilling victory for the Norton Lancer football team.

After a long hard volleyball match, Peter Vitello opts to take a breather.

"We're all Wimbledon bound. See ya next year." Rachel Sayce, Naomi Turgeon, and Christine Sicard get ready to practice their forehand.

"Art is the key to inner peace." Sean Connor thinks as he looks for a new inspiration to sketch.

Coke or Sprite? Which would you like?" At the Freshmen Welcome Dance, Carrie Bachand, Kerry Boyd, Kira McCarthy, and Kristine Royal work the refreshment stand.

With the patriotic background behind him, Dale Wiggins is ready to learn about history.

Having a great time at the Freshmen Welcome Dance, Ray Shepardson shows everyone the latest dance moves.

After a day at school, Lisa Hubert takes time outside to clear her mind.

SENIORS!!!!

THIS IS. . .

. . . a day in the life of a Norton High student.

Last minute touchups on homework are always on the minds of our students. Colleen Doherty sits in homeroom, finishing her history homework.

Many students are still half asleep when they arrive at school. By first period though, students like Andy Janczunski start showing their sense of humor.

When gym class rolls around, Shannon Bonacci shows us what fun the class can be.

Finally, lunch time! Freshmen take advantage of this time to catch up on things that have happened throughout the morning. Pictured are Jessica Royal, Kerry O'Connell, Steven Wright, Jeremy Anufrom, and David Young.

"Shop class is great!" Metal and wood are some students' favorite time of the day. Dave Falconer tunes up his machine so he can finish his project.

"Don't worry, Lisa Byrnes, it's almost 1:38. You'll get through it."

Cookin' Up Fun!

The clean up crew of the 1992 Senior Barbeque stop for R & R.

Right in the middle of senior spirit week came the class cookout. Hotdogs, hamburgers and brownies were served first, then on to the games. Organized games included softball, volleyball, tug of war between homerooms, a sack race, egg toss, and the three-legged race. The event served to boost the enthusiasm of the seniors and increase the pride in their class.

Don't worry, Jay Bernardo, Darren Green won't beat you; he can't even keep his feet in the bag.

"Brian, we thought we told you plastic bags were dangerous!" Senior Brian Murphy exhibits true class spirit as he sprints across the finish line of the bag race.

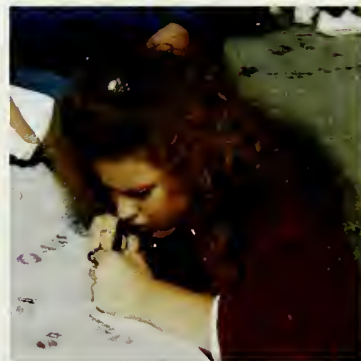

"You want me to .....COOK???" questions Jason Robbins while sporting the chef's hat.

Due to toxic condiments, Kristin Mackesy sprouts a second head, closely resembling Cindy Cucinotta.

C'mon Cowboys! Jason Robbins, Josh Ramsey and Chris Pray tug as hard as they can to help their homeroom in a tug of war.

Glad bag man to the rescue! Steve Falconer dresses in plastic on his mission to save the world.

"I think I can, I think I can." This was on the minds of seniors participating in the three legged race. Becca Dennett and Kelly MacCaffrie lead the race with Kira McCarthy, Dawn Allen, and Kim Marks following close behind.

"Kissy, kissy." Kristen Corriea leaves her mark and autograph on the senior kiss sheet.

As Ms. Rogers' homeroom tugs with all their might, Russell Chancey stands on the sidelines laughing.

America's family values
Study after study suggests that Americans still cherish the nuclear ideal, a model of family life that stretches back generations. People long for a sense of commitment to community and family ties.

The six American value types

Better life:
High value on financial security
High value on religion
High value on family values

Family enthusiasts:
Strongest family values
High value on marriage
High value on religion

Discouraged:

Traditionalists:
High value on religion
Disdain for women's movement
"Conservative" and Republican

Modern nesters:
Feel pressure to balance home and career
Optimistic about changes in American family

Special Seniors

Last summer, five of Norton High School's seniors joined the United States Army Reserve, and went to boot camp. By collecting money from their reserve pay and through the G.I. Bill, these enterprising students have found a good way to pay for college, get a head start on their careers, and serve Uncle Sam. These extraordinary seniors are, Luke Staffier, Jason Araujo, Brian Pierce, Rob Laham, and Ryan White.

After four years of hard work, these ten students have emerged among the brightest and most diligent in the school. These students have made many contributions to the school and the community. These super seniors are (front row) Kristine Royal, Laurie Clare, Heather Watters, and Kerry Boyd; (back row) Michael Wagner, Dale Wiggins, Jonathan Lavelly, Kerl Lynn Charles, Lisa Ramas, and Raelyn Grasso.

BRIDGES

The mighty river cuts
And plunders,
Splitting and dividing

What once was a unit breaks and the new lands
Diversify and go their separate ways,

The boundaries are clear,
As each land bears its unique mark.
And independence develops,
As one no longer needs the others to survive.

Yet there is still the pain
Of separation, and the loneliness.
The oneness has been severed.

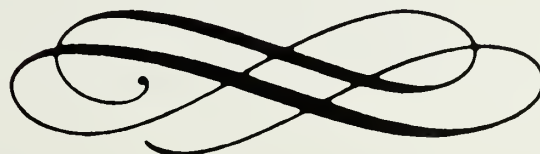

Only the
Bridges
Can connect and reunify
To heal the wounds and ease the pain.

As we now embark
Upon our own journey
Of independence,
We must never
Break the bonds
We have secured,
Because, though we must part,
We will always be
United as one.

For as each culture develops
By the influence of others
So we have become who we are
Through the influence of each other.

And, though separated by miles and years
We must never forget where we came from,
For we will always have our
Bridges
To return us there.

Keri Charles

CLASS OF '93 ADVISERS

As our advisers these individuals have had a profound effect upon our class during our tenure at Norton High School. We would now like to take this opportunity to recognize them for their encouragement which has enabled us to come so far; for their understanding which has helped us so much as we prepared for our great venture into the world; and for their dedication to us as we progressed through this institution of learning. We, the Class of 1993 would sincerely like to thank these invaluable individuals for their efforts.

Senior class advisers are: Front row: Mr. Maher and Mr. Hickey;
Back row: Ms. Rogers, Mrs. Russell, and Mrs. Baucher.

Festive seniors like Randi Carine prepared the decorations for the homecoming Pep Rally.

Beaming with pride, Mark Mazelli showed off the balloons he received.

This happy clean up crew obviously doesn't realize how much work they still must do after the 1992 Spaghetti Supper.

NEW YORK! NEW YORK!

On December 4, 1992, the Honor Societies took their annual trip to New York City. The first stop was the United Nations where ambassadors were conferring about the situation in Somalia, then off on a walking tour with stops at F.A.O. Schwartz, St. Patrick's Cathedral and Trump Tower. The main attraction — the Henri Matisse art exhibit was the most extensive retrospective of Matisse's work ever assembled. Of those who attended, all found inspiration, beauty, and excitement in the bustling metropolis. According to the description from Mott Drane's poem "New York": "The night in New York was great, you must say; Exciting, rewarding, in all a great day."

One of Ray Lichtenstein's many murals.

The Empire State Building.

Manning the refreshments table are Seth McEtrick, Dawn Carr, and Joe Robbins.

Just some of the fine pieces of art displayed at the Gallery.

Celebrate Art '93 was a great success again for a second year. Artwork from the best art students of Norton was displayed at Wheaton's Watson Art Gallery, for public enjoyment.

Our New Faculty Members

Mrs. Wagner

Mrs. Burrill

We would like to extend a warm welcome to two new teachers who made their debut at Norton High School this year. Filling positions in the business and physical education departments were Mrs. Burrill and Mrs. Wagner, respectively. These newcomers quickly adapted to their new surroundings and have become an integral part of the school. After the retirement of Mrs. Costa our long time business teacher, her courses were left in the capable hands of Mrs. Burrill. Mrs. Wagner was able to fill the void left by the departure of Miss Archibald from the physical education department. We would like to take this opportunity to show our appreciation for the flexibility and dedication they have shown in adapting to life at Norton High School.

Taking a shot, Rachel Sayce comes one basket closer to her 1,000 point goal.

Waiting to present flowers, Randi Carline expresses the team's feelings about Rachel's accomplishments.

Patiently waiting for the crowd to stop cheering, Mr. Nuttall prepares to give a stirring speech.

She knew from the moment she slipped on her uniform, this was no ordinary basketball game. Rachel Sayce was six points away from making history, the third Lancer and the first Lady Lancer to break the one thousand point barrier. This game against the Carver Crusaders was the most important game in her high school career. Close to the end of the first half, she did it with an easy shot. She made history with her thousandth point. Time out was called. The crowd went wild. Mounds of flowers, cards, and gifts were presented to her, congratulating her on this incredible feat. During her speech, she thanked Mr. Nuttall, her teammates, and her number one fans, her parents. All in all, it was a night to remember. Congratulations again, Rachel!

CLASS OF '94

The class of 1994 has much to look forward to as they move toward their senior year. They have retained the same enthusiasm and confidence with which they entered freshman year. They hope to embark upon their senior year on a high note after a successful prom, "These are the Times to Remember" which was held at the Lakeview Pavilion in April.

CLASS OF '95

As the class of 1995 reached the high school halfway mark, the students looked back on fond memories and forward to fun times. Plans for exciting activities are in the making for their last two years at Norton High School. The officers and advisers will continue to work hard to ensure that the class of '95 leaves their mark. With successful fundraisers and everlasting spirit, the sophomore class will achieve their goals.

Class of '96

After successfully completing just one year at N.H.S., the freshman class has already proven they have spirit. The class won the decorating contest at this year's homecoming pep rally. In their upcoming three years, the class will work hard under the leadership of their advisers to keep up this momentum.

ACTIVITIES

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society members include:

Front row-Treasurer, Dale Wiggins; Vice President, Keri Charles; President, Kerry Boyd; Secretary, Mike Wagner; and Historian, Stephanie Drusic.

Middle row-Heathers Watters, Raelyn Grasso, Lisa Ramos, Laurie Clare, Kristen Bischoff, Jonathan Lovely, and Jennifer Curran.

Last row-Kathryn Maher, Amy Allsop, Carrie Zawislak, Claire Sirois, Christina Maginnis, Michelle Poirot, and Matthew Drane.

The hardworking members of the Jean G. Findlater Chapter of the National Honor Society are constantly striving to maintain the qualities of service, scholarship, good character, and leadership in their lives in the many services they provide for the school, such as organizing the Homecoming Semi-Formal, putting on the college day presentation, and offering scholarships from the money raised during their annual bike-a-thon.

The society's balloon sale is another way money is raised for scholarships which are awarded to students.

The honor society induction ceremony is an exciting night for the inductees such as Carrie Zawislak who is congratulated by Mr. Wheeler.

Pleased with the outcome of the Homecoming Semi Formal, Mrs. Robbins enjoys her duty of presenting flowers to senior court member Colleen LaConte.

The creative members of the Renaissance Chapter of the National Art Honor Society utilize their talents for the benefit of our school and community. This society contributes by organizing and participating in activities such as the semi-formal, seasonal window painting, pumpkin painting, and face painting. The money this society raises goes toward student scholarships.

The oath of induction is taken by the incoming members of the National Art Honor Society. Members include Kathy Huntley, Jennifer Paulhus, Joe Robbins, and Jessica Ronald.

ART HONOR SOCIETY

National Art Honor Society members include: Front Row-Adria Carter; Secretary, Tina DeMarco; Vice President, Lisa Ramos; President, Becca Dennett; Treasurer, Carrie Bachand; and Edward Farrington.

Middle Row-Amanda Reilly, Abigail Wanamaker, Kathy Huntley, Jessica Ronald, Kira McCarthy, Stephen Maher, and Laurel Clare.

Last Row-Seth McEttrick, Heather Sarvia, Cynthia Ercolano, Jennifer Paulhus, Joseph Robbins, Darren Green, Luke Adams, and André Mills.

The newest member of the Art Honor Society, Mrs. Myers, chairperson of the school committee, is aided in lighting her candle by Becca Dennett.

"Congratulations, Joe Robbins, you are now an official member of the Art Honor Society."

SPANISH HONOR SOCIETY

Hola todos! The Norton High School Alonso Quijana chapter of the Spanish Honor Society learned of the Spanish culture. This society contributed to the semi-formal, and members helped their fellow students by tutoring them. This was done under the advisership of Mr. Maher.

After another interesting Spanish class, Aimee Titus gathered her belongings to leave.

You can tell Andre Mills was not comero shy.

QUILL & SCROLL SOCIETY

One of "The Lance's" leading figures, Mike DaCosta, was caught taking a break for some well deserved nourishment.

The Quill and Scroll Honor Society honors outstanding members of the school's newspaper, "The Lance"; literary arts magazine, "Local Colour"; and yearbook, Sojourn.

The members of Quill and Scroll include: Michael Wagner, Carrie Zawislak, Racheal Amaral, and Michael DaCosta.

After hard work during the school day, Mike Wagner relaxed at an extracurricular event.

The members of "The Lance" included:
Front Row-Faith Dansereau and Michael DaCosta
Middle Row-Carrie Zawislak, Racheal Amaral, and Shana Gradie
Back Row- Adviser, Mrs. Sumner, Michael Mackinder, and Christen Geary.

One of the talented members, Faith Dansereau, took a break between deadlines.

The writing skills of newspaper writer, Shana Gradie, were honed in English class.

These dedicated members of "The Lance" and their new adviser, Mrs. Sumner, got the presses rolling after a slow start. These budding journalists dutifully covered events both in and out of the classroom.

THE LANCE

YEARBOOK

Many students worked long and hard to complete this, the 1993 edition of Sojourn. These students were the ones who made it all possible. They ran the fundraisers, drew up the pages, cropped the pictures, wrote the copy and entered them in on the new computer system. Their combined efforts have made this year's Sojourn one of the best.

The editorial staff of the yearbook include:

Front row: Joe Robbins;

Second row: Tina DeMarco, Carrie Bachand, Kira McCarthy, Jessica Kuszaj, and Laurel Clare;

Third row: Kristine Rayal, Heather Watters, Dawn Carr, Jennifer Paulhus, and Kerry Boyd;

Back row: Matthew Drane, Lisa Ramas, and Michael Wagner.

A Special Thank You

The publication of the 1993 edition of Sojourn would not have been possible without the hard work, dedication, and understanding of some outstanding people. We, the yearbook staff, would like to take this opportunity to thank a trio of indispensable ladies and a group of very supportive gentlemen.

Without this group of wonderful ladies, our yearbook would not be of the same caliber as it is today. The patience and dedication of our advisers, Mrs. Gagnon and Ms. Cloutier, and our computer wizard, Mrs. Myers, helped to make this publication possible.

Also, we would like to thank the custodians of the night crew; these gentlemen made our late nights of work on the yearbook nearly hassle-free.

We would like to extend our thanks to Mr. David Hatfield of the Energizer Eveready Battery Company, St. Louis, MO for the use of the Energizer Bunny™. He was just one of the countless individuals in and out of this school who have helped us in the production of this yearbook.

The teamwork that is essential to any good publication was evident as Dawn Carr, Tina DeMarco, Joseph Robbins, Michael Wagner, and Jessica Kuszaj work on same page.

Dressed in their sixties best, Clifton Zawasky and Manica Allard are a big hit at the French Club retro party.

FRENCH CLUB

Although French Club members may not speak fluent French, they do have fun trying. During the year, this group had various parties; one included the annual "Fete des Rois", where a king and queen were crowned. Any student taking French was allowed to participate in these activities and to help celebrate the French holidays and traditions.

Front row: Claire Sirais, Chuck Biran, Raelyn Grassa, Dale Wiggins, Kerry Boyd, Cindy Cucinatta, Kira McCarthy, Carrie Bachand, and Laurie Clare.

Middle Row: Jen Curran, Lisa Ramos, Jessica Kuszaj, Hally Quaglia, Amy Simpson, Bekki Moore, Julie Simpson, Jen Hays, and Kelly Celeste.
Back Row: Kathy Huntley, Dawn Carr, Jen Paulhus, David Wagner, Carrie Zawislak, Joe Bakanauskas, Matt Drane, Michelle Pairat, Abbie Wanamaker, Kristen Carreira, and Faith Dansereau.

"Local Colour", Norton High School's literary arts magazine, is a publication that includes creative writing and artwork done by the students. The works included short stories, poems, and drawings. This magazine was released in the spring. The advisers are Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. Gagnon.

LOCAL COLOUR

Much hardware goes into the publication of our literary arts magazine. "Local Colour", a creative forum, would not go to press without the dedication of staff members like Matthew Lane.

SCIENCE OLYMPIAD

The members of this scientific minded group are:
 Second Row: Tony Yukna, Nicole Affanato, Liam Malloy, Kelly Jackson, Erin Maginnis, Virginio Jerome, Amber Peters, Bill Redding, Christine Rovinski, Carla Clark, and Patrick Drone;
 Back Row: Mrs. DiModica, Racheal Amaral, Demetra Orfanos, David Wagner, David Horton, Christina Maginnis, Amy Clark, Kristen Bischoff, Matthew Drane, Lisa Moschella, and Kerry O'Connell.

With a talented membership, this year's Science Olympiad promised to be a leader in the league. The Olympiad competed against such area schools as Medway and Oliver Ames in many different science-related events.

"Ready, aim, fire!" Michael Wagner performed a experiment for his portion of the mee

One of the team's talented seniors, Jon Lovely contributed much to this year's strong team.

The mathematically inclined members of the Math Team are:
 Front Row: Patrick Drane, Kristen Bischoff, Secretary/Treasurer, Heather Watters, President, Michael Wagner, Vice-President, Stephanie Drunsic, Dole Wiggins, and Stephen Maher;
 Second Row: Kathryn Maher, Christina Maginnis, Jennifer Curran, Amy Allsop, and Jonathan Lovely;

The Norton High School Math Team participated in math competition against opponents such as Dighton-Rehoboth and Foxboro. The team had a particularly strong presence this year and did very well.

MATH TEAM

DEBATE TEAM

Diligently working, Christen Geary researched the information supporting the topic of discussion.

The members of this year's Debate team are: Christen Geary, Michael DeCosto, Falth Donsereou, and not pictured Eric Boudreau.

The small but fiesty debate team managed to put together a very effective team. Throughout the year, they faced stiff competition from the likes of Foxboro, Bishop Feehan, and Tabor Academy.

Sifting patiently, Vice-President Michelle Affanato waited to have her say in what changes she wanted for the school.

Front Row-Tino DeMarco, Maureen Kelleher, Chuck Biron, Kristin Mockesy, Luke Staffier, Michelle Affanato, Rondi Corine, Rachel Soyce, and Nichole O'Connell;
Middle Row-Bill Redding, Shannon Clegg, Jamie Klowitter, Amber Pefers, Christen Geary, Holly Quoglio, Ryan Walsh, Allison Poppolardo, David Sullivan, and Lorry Taylor;

How else can you say how your school is run besides being in student government? This group of dedicated students met throughout the school year to discuss events. Under the direction of Mr. Gorman, President, Luke Staffier; Vice President, Michelle Affanato; Secretary, Chuck Biron; and Treasurer, Kristin Mackesy, this year's student council helped contribute to the Homecoming activities, including the Semi-Formal. They also held their annual Santa Fund. As part of the student council, the Student Advisory Board acted as an intermediary between us, the students, and the school committee.

STUDENT COUNCIL

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Amnesty International is a group that promotes the awareness of violations of human rights that occur around the world. Under the leadership of Mr. Bartek, the group wrote to government officials in other countries and asked for the release of prisoners of conscience. Several fund raisers were held to help pay for the cost of sending the letters around the world.

Front Row: Heather Watters, Beth Hurley, Treasurer Gerilee Callahan, Secretary Laurel Clare, Presidents Cathy Moriello and Adria Carter, Lisa Ramos, and Kerl Charles;
Middle Row: Anthony Scherma, Kelly Celeste, Jeremy Anufrom, Nikoletta Anifantis, Mary Kendall, Jennifer Smith, Natalie Talbott, Andrea Robbins, and Dale Wiggins;
Back Row: Adviser, Mr. Bartek, Bill Redding, Christen Geary, Holly Quaglia, Jessica Kuszaj, Allison Gentille, Sue McKenney, and Stephen Maher.

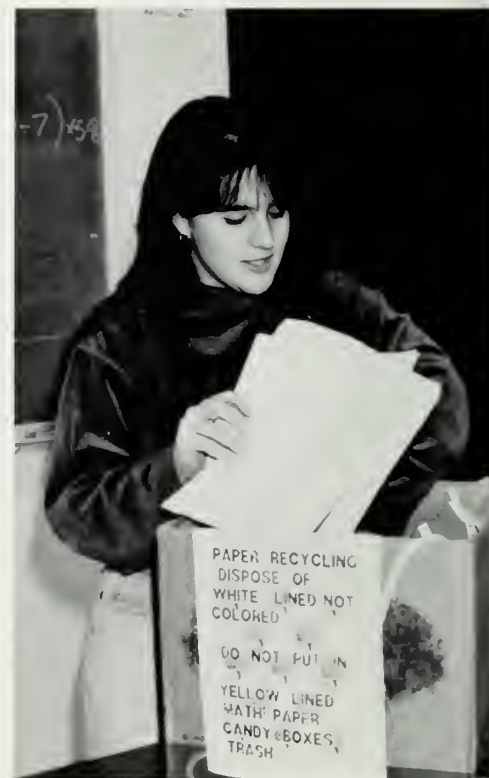

In protest of human rights violations in Chile, Lisa Ramos writes a letter to protest the situation.

"Save the Earth!!" is the cry of this environmental loving group. With its annual recycling program under way, the group had activities planned throughout the year. There was a water awareness day which emphasized the conservation and appreciation of our existing water. They made their annual trip to the elementary schools to promote environmental awareness with the younger generation. They also performed a cleanup on Rt. 140 in the spring. This group was under the leadership of presidents Laurel Clare, Kerry Boyd, Cathy Moriello, and adviser Mr. Bartek.

GREENPEACE

Sorting out the recyclable from the non-recyclable paper, Kerry Boyd does her part to save the environment.

Due to caring students like Clifton Zawasky, this year's peer leaders were very successful.

PEER LEADERSHIP

This year's peer leaders did more than ever; if any student ever needed someone to talk to, a peer leader was always available and willing to help. The members were responsible for serving as role models for students in all schools, including the middle and elementary schools. They made presentations to younger grades and warned of the effects of drug and alcohol abuse, as well as peer pressure. Their activities included eighth grade orientation and a "buddy" system, where a peer leader was assigned as a "buddy" to a new student to help make an easier transition.

Peer Leadership members are:

Second Row: Angela Bernard, Eryn Ingalls, Michelle Precourt, Carrie Zawislak, Christina Maginnis, Kristen Bischoff, and Gerilee Callahan;

Back Row: Adviser, Mrs. Fard, Melissa Fernandes, Kristen Sunde, Clifton Zawasky, Laura Wedge, Michelle Polrot, Maureen Kelleher, Kelly Celeste, and adviser Mrs. Martin.

Norton High School students who attended Boys State are:
Front Row: Scott Martin, Michael Wagner, and Dale Wiggins;
Second Row: Ed Farrington and Michael DaCosta;
Back Row: Jay Jil, Stephen Maher, and counselor Rene Tellier.

Norton High School students who attended Girls State include:

Front Row: Lisa Ramos, Stephanie Drunsic, Kerry Boyd, and Amy Frazier;

Second Row: Kira McCarthy, Jennifer Hays, Claire Sirols, Jessica Ronald, and Cindy Cucinotta;

Girls State and Boys State are opportunities for a select group of girls and boys to participate in a mock government by electing leaders, delegating assignments, and taking on various responsibilities. In June of 1992, the girls travelled to Mount Holyoke and the boys to Bentley College. There they formed political parties, held elections, listened to debates and lectures, and held their own town meetings. All of their activities helped to broaden their understanding of the way the U.S. government works.

BOYS AND GIRLS STATE

THE MARCHING BAND

Front row-Mr. William MacMullen, Demetra Orfanos, Janis Martino, Danielle Ricci; Second Row-Beth O'Keefe, Sarah Galante, Chris Belmonte, Carrie Zawislak, Joe Bakanauskas, Tony Yukna, Third Row-Amy Simpson, Colleen Kelley, Julie Simpson, Kim Poirier, Amber Peters, Erin Maginnis, Christina Maginnis, Christine Ravinski, Stephanie Poirier, Jen Curran, Linde Arnald, Jill Murphy; Fourth Row-Mandy Reilly, Kim Kenefick, Jamie Klawitter, Kristen Bischoff, Pat Drane, Eryn Ingalls, Paul Chastenay, Nate Eckstrom, Jessica Fahey, Bill Redding, Christen Geary; Back Row-Kim Cummings, Kristen Sunde, Meredith Moore, Mike Moran, Laura Wedge, Matt Drane, Dan Rhodes, Virginia Jerome, Kerl Charles, Michelle Polrot, Manica Allard, Rebecca Moore.

The halftime field show for the marching band consisted of songs with American themes. "The Americans", "God Bless America", "Spirit of America", and "You're a Grand Old Flag" were all performed under drum major, Carrie Zawislak's direction. "Frosty the Snowman" was played during parades in Quincy and Falmouth, where the band won three trophies in competition.

Preparing for the brass section of the "Star Spangled Banner", Paul Chastenay mentally counts off the beats.

"Everybody, on the count of 3," said drum major Carrie Zawislak as she prepped the band for their next song.

Marching to the beat of a different drummer, Chris Belmonte performed during the halftime show.

CHORUS

Norton High School's chorus is an excellent opportunity for talented students, who normally wouldn't have time after school, to sing their hearts out during a class. All their hard work paid off during their many fine concerts, including the solo ensemble and spring concert. Mr. MacMullen directed this group with the accompanist, Ms. Worthley.

"Michael Bolton, watch out!" Ray Daly's working his way up the ladder of success.

Front Row: Julie Sigman, Nicole Araujo, Kim Marks, Kelly Celeste, Nicole Hamilton, Janis Martino, Jill Laracque, Angela Bernard, and Gerilee Callahan;
Middle Row: Christie Devine, Soroh Seavey, Kelly Jackson, Heather Vieira, Lisa Ramas, Kate Chellman, Raelyn Grassa, Kerl Charles, and Andy Hamlen;
Back Row: Pam Buswell, Tara Fallen, Ray Daly, Luke Staffier, Christopher Lewis, Jeremy Anufram, Demetra Orfanos, and Hally Quoglio.

Twirling in unison to the beat of the music, Carly McNary perfects her routine.

FLAGS AND MAJORETTES

Flags and majorettes play a major role in the half-time shows of Lancer football games under the direction of Danielle Ricci. Participating in various competitions, they have brought home many awards and medals.

Front Row: Demetro Orfonas, Kim Cummings, Mondy Reilly, Kristen Sunde, Kim Poirier, and Janis Martino;
Second Row: Meredith Moore, Julie Simpson, Amy Simpson, and Kim Keneflick; Back Row: Jill Murphy, Christen Geary, Monico Allard, and Bekki Maare.

While battling heavy winds, Bekki Maare, Christen Geary, Monico Allard, and Jill Murphy have to do everything they can to keep their flags untangled.

After finishing a perfect twirl, Kristen Sunde concentrates on her next toss.

At the Homecoming Pep Rally, both flags and majorettes performed to lift the spirits of all present.

ASSISTANTS

Office Assistants:

Front row: Heather O'Neill, Colleen Doherty, Katie Suydan, Beth Hurley, Kristin Mackesy, Cindy Cucinotta, and Tina DeMarco;
Second row: Jen Guy, Michelle Esperian, Melissa Hill, Randi Carine, Kathy Millard, and Kathy Huntley;
Back row: Beth Croteau, Shelby Martell, Dawn Fletcher, Wendi Johnson, Shana Gradle, Nikolettia Anifantis, and Jennifer Beatty.

Library Assistants:

Front row: Sarah Cruff and Chris Jil;
Back row: Liam Malloy, Brian DeCamp, and Mrs. Sumner.

Guidance Assistants:

Front Row: Danielle Merola, Michelle Affanato, Dawn Allen, Kim Marks, Tammy Casagni, and Melissa Uva;
Second Row: Jenn Kirrane, Miranda Langevin, Kristine McHugh, Kristine Newcomb, and Rebecca Lincoln;
Back Row: Colleen LaConte, Jason Robbins, Christine Sicard, and Jason Araujo.

Computer Assistants:

Front Row: Amy Frazier, Heather Watters;
Center: Kurt Carlson;
Back Row: Ed Farrington, Jonathan Lovely, and Mike DaCosta.

The Assistants Program in Norton High School operates on a strictly volunteer basis. Students showed their appreciation toward the faculty and staff by answering the phone, typing, and organizing and stapling worksheets and memos. Their assistance was greatly appreciated.

Department Assistants:

Front Row: Jen Hays, Kristen Correia, and Faith Dansereau;
Second Row: Amy Dempsey, Melissa Hill, Christine Sicard, and Colleen LaConte;

PURPLE KEY

As students go in and out of classes between periods, they are greeted with the caring smile of a member of Purple Key. This select group of seniors helped their fellow students by maintaining order in the hallways. These students held their posts and prevented traffic jams in the halls of N.H.S. What these students liked was leaving class early and getting there late!

Front Row: Colleen LaConte, Danielle Merola, Faith Dansereau, Beth Hurley, and Kelly Chrzanowski;
Middle Row: Adria Carter, Heather Sorvio, Katie Sheridan, and Kelly MacCaffrie; Back Row: Scott Martin, Joe Boyle, Paul Chastenay, Ed Farrington, Jen Horton, and Dove Edgar.

"Keep on smiling, Kelly MacCaffrie!"

The members of the Pep Club are:
Front Row: C. Cucinotta, L. Staffier, K. Chrzanowski, K. Celeste, C. LaConte, C. Sicard, F. Dansereau(sec.), M. Kelleher(pres.), K. Millard(vice-pres.), A. Frazier(treas.), T. DeMarco, M. Affanato, R. Sayce, and B. Dennett;
Second Row: K. McCarthy, K. Huntley, M. Allard, S. Pereira, J. Kusaj, H. Quaglia, S. Gracie, N. Anifantis, J. Beatty, R. Carine, N. Talbott, M. Kendall, and J. Smith;
Third Row: D. Carr, J. Precourt, D. Maher, B. Jones, M. Castrechini, L. Byrnes, J. Hoys, R. Sayce, A. Gentile, and S. Drunski; Back Row: K. Mackesy, D. Ethier, J. Navedo, D. Frietas, S. Bonocci, A. DeLuca, T. Chrzanowski, M. Kiely, K. Correia, C. Proy, A. Robbins, J. Devin, and S. McKenney.

This year's Pep Club was one of the most spirited groups ever. They organized our Homecoming Pep Rally, helped to make the Thanksgiving Bonfire a success, and did all they could to support our Lancers by displaying posters around school to wish the teams good luck.

PEP CLUB

As president of the pep club, Maureen Kelleher emceed the Homecoming Pep Rally.

The Semi-Formal is put on every year by the National Honor Society, the National Art Honor Society, the National Spanish Honor Society, and the Student Council. This year's Semi-Formal took place at the Columbia Cultural Arts Center with the theme "Elegantly Yours".

"ELEGANTLY YOURS" 1992

These elegant young ladies included:
Front Row-Christine Sicard and Calleen LaCante;
Middle Row-Tina DeMarca, Kira McCarthy, Kathy Millard,
 Kathy Huntley, and Carrie Bachand;
Back Row-Lisa Giardana, Stephanie Drunsic, Rachel Sayce, Maureen Kelleher, Jennifer Paulhus, Dawn Carr.

Members of the Homecoming Court included: Meagan Brazao; Sarah Galante; Christine Sicard; Rachel Sayce; King, Luke Staffier; Queen, Cindy Cucinatta; Maureen Kelleher; Calleen LaCante; Natalie Talbatt; Katherine Weisman; and Shelby Martell.

Relaxing after a night of dancing are Bill Gendralius and his date, Natalie Talbatt.

From the expressions on the faces of Tam Cameron, Jan Lambarda and Amy Allsop, they felt the Semi-Formal was a big success.

SPAGHETTI SUPPER

"The salad is good...really" replied Mr. Maher and Jen Hartan.

This year's spaghetti supper, put on by the Senior Class, was one of the most successful ever.

The cafeteria was taken over by enthusiastic seniors who decorated it and prepared an excellent Mueller's spaghetti supper.

The ambiance of the transformed cafeteria was completed by the accordion player, Alec Rich. All in all, a wonderful evening.

The spirit and entertainment for the night was added to by Kristin Mackesy who dressed as a kindly old man.

"Think that's enough, Brian?", asked Darrell Colhaun.

"Hurry, Kurt Carlson, there are hungry people out there!"

SPORTS

In hopes of annihilating the opposition
Coach Lorry Lorocque watched his finest men go to battle

FOOTBALL

The members of this year's squad are:
Front row- Jan Lovering, Ryan White, Billy Cody, Jason Joyce, copf. Luke Stoffier, copf. Darrell Colhoun, capt. Rob Lohom, Brian Murphy,
Donald Powers, Keith Johnson, and Roy Shepardson;
2nd row- Mike Hiltz, Andy Janczunski, Bill Whiffen, Jim Cameron, Jason Robbins, Dave Folconer, Andy McNeill, Steve Folconer, Zack Belkner,
Mike Mockinder, Rob Simoneffi, Chris Childs, and Allan George;
3rd row- Keith Collohon, Joey Mosse, Luke Adams, Donny Dwyer, Poul Donforth, Rob Todesco, Steve Yorke, Jomy Longevin, Ben Denny, Eric
Horris, and Ricky Angus;
4th row- Bobby Mills, Dennis Lynch, Tom Cameron, Chris Demortino, Jim Crowley, Brian Jackson, Tom Powers, Jeremy Mullett, Steve Keough,
and Greg King;
Back row- Coaches: Chris Lopes, Keith Gibson, Lorry Lorocque, Ed Potvin, and Jim Mitchell.

The excitement of winning brought Rob Lohom and Luke Stoffier a little closer together

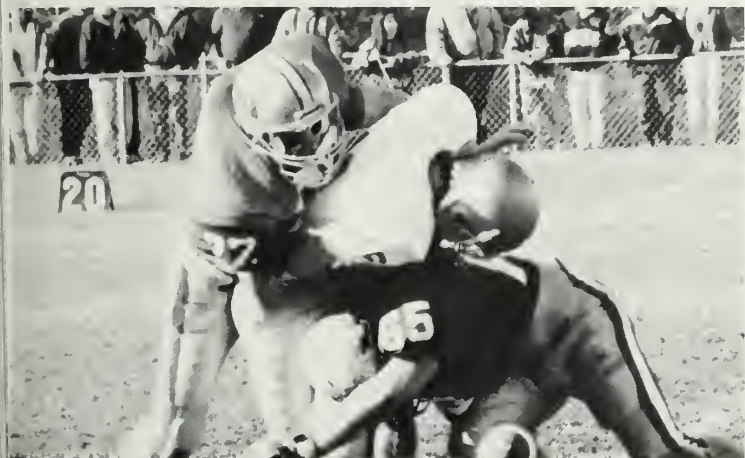

The opposition was merely pushed away as Rob Lohom's determination carried him up the field.

Under the leadership of Larry Larocque, the football team played many hard fought battles this year. The Lancers were led by captains Darrell Calhoun, Luke Staffier, and Rob Laham who also rushed for over 1,000 yards this season. Some of the other key roles were filled by Bill Cady, Keith Johnson, Andy McNeil, Jason Robbins, and Jon Lovering. The Lancers are looking for another great season next year with the help of such talented players such as Jim O'Neill, Jim Crowley, Luke Adams, Keith Callahan, and Dennis Lynch.

As the opposition rushed, a block by lineman Brion Murphy freed Jason Joyce for the throw.

The Lancers opposition's desire was crushed by the power of Jim Crowley and Darrell Calhoun.

While the crowd watched in awe, quarterback Jason Joyce dropped back to throw to one of the receivers.

Diving to make the catch, Bobby Mills grabbed the ball out of the air for another spectacular reception.

The blocking power of Dannie Powers made it easy for quarterback Jason Joyce to throw another completion.

BOYS' SOCCER

Leaping through the air, Mike Moran snatched what would have been an opponent's goal.

Under the new leadership of Coach Roger Ramsey, the boys' soccer team finished the year 6-9-1 in the South Shore League. Captains Jash Ramsey, Joe Robbins, and Mike Wagner helped the Lancers finish with the best record they have had in the past four years. Jason Bernardo, Chris Pray, Chuck Biron, and Stephen Maher all contributed greatly to this year's season. Next year looks hopeful with players like Larry Taylor, Mark Troiano, Adam Norko, and Everett Downing.

The decision of which way to control the ball was tough for Mike Wagner when playing between two Crusaders.

Foot skills were Jason Bernardo's strong point when dribbling through three defenses.

Front Row: Chris Pray, Mike Wagner, Joey Robbins, Jash Ramsey, and Charles Biron;
Middle Row: Mike Maran, Adam Norko, Darren Green, Stephen Maher, Tony Troiano, Jason Bernardo, and Everett Downing;

The struggle to get to the ball first can often be a painful one for Joey Robbins' opponents.

The effective pep talks of Coach Ramsey were often what the team needed to lead them to victory.

In his second year as the Lady Lancers' soccer coach, Kevin MacCaffrie can be very proud of his girls' accomplishments. Captains Rachel Sayce, Randi Carine, Becca Dennett, and Stephanie Drunsic proved their leadership abilities by guiding the girls through a difficult season. Randi was a mainstay for the Lancers in net, as she was chosen for the South Shore League All-Star Team. The Lancers are looking forward to next year, with such standouts as Angela DeLuca, Tracey Chrzanowski, Jenn Korrane, and the dynamic Martell twins.

Obviously Kevin MacCaffrie didn't appreciate Angela DeLuca's private joke.

Preparation was a big part of any game for Becca Dennett, Rachel Sayce, Stephanie Drunsic, and Randi Carine.

Front row: Tracey Chrzanowski, Angela DeLuca, Shannon Bonacci, Natalie Talbot, and Julie Agstrom
Second Row: Shelby Martell, Jenn Korrane, Shawn Martell, Kelly MacCaffrie, Jen Beatty, and Amy Frazier

GIRLS' SOCCER

Striving to get to the ball, Rachel Sayce always gave 110%, as we can see by her facial expressions.

"No, this is my ball!", said Shawn Martell to Stephanie Drunsic.

The defensive skills of sweeper Becca Dennett were too much for her opponents.

CHEERLEADING

Co-Captain Kira McCarthy leads her team in a spirited dance during the pep rally.

This year's cheerleaders brought enthusiasm and spirit to the fans during the football and basketball seasons. Leading the way for the Lancers were captains Kira McCarthy and Tina DeMarco. Coach Lauren Ricci led the cheerleaders into the Patriette Competition at Dean Jr. College. This year's squad had great support from seniors Kim Marks, Christine Sicard, Lisa Ramos, Jill Larocque, and Kathy Huntley. Next year's prospects include Nicole Hamilton, Mary Kendall, and Natalie Talbott.

The cheerleaders move in lively fashion at the pep rally.

The cheering of Holly Quaglia helps inspire the Lancer football team.

Front Row: Captains Kira McCarthy and Tina DeMarco
Middle Row: Jill Larocque, Kim Marks, Carrie Duhy, Lisa Ramos, and Stacey McNair
Back Row: Holly Quaglia, Nicole Hamilton, Kathy Huntley, Natalie Talbott, Christine Sicard, Mary Kendall, Shannon Bertram, and Julie Hagstrom

"Volleyball, it's not a game but a way of life," is the motto of Norton High School's girls' volleyball team. The pride, dedication, and hard work needed to live up to this standard is realized in all of the team's members. Together, they had an outstanding season with an impressive 13-7 record. Their commitment to many rigorous practices paid off and brought the team to the divisional semi-finals for the first time while under Coach Leddy's instruction. Congratulations girls!

VOLLEYBALL

Intense concentration, which is an integral part of any sport, is evident in the eyes at Lisa Byrnes.

The tension of a big game certainly doesn't affect Kristin Mackesy and Abbie Wanamaker.

Practice and determination pay off for Melanie Kiely as she completes another perfect dig.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

At the jump, Melanie Kiely easily tips the ball off to one of her teammates.

Front row: Renee Soyce, Trocey Chrzonowski, Shonnon Bonocci, Jenn Klrone, and Rondi Corine;

After an exciting season last year which found the Lonecners with a Boston Globe ranking as high as 16 and record of 15-5, the Norton High School girls' basketball team enjoyed yet another outstanding season this year. Led by veteran co-captains Rondi Corine and Rachel Soyce, the Lonecners were led to the State Tournament by such talented players as Renee Soyce, Melanie Kiely, and Jenn Klrone. One Norton player, Rachel Soyce, even found a place for herself in the history books as she is the first girl to break the 1000 point barrier in Norton history. All in all an exciting and energizing season.

After yet another perfect steal, Rondi Corine goes in for an easy two point shot.

After receiving an in-bounds pass, Jenn Klrone dribbles the ball down court.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Norton High School boys' basketball team went through their paces this season under the leadership of coach Howard Kelley. Last season's mark of 14-7 was easily surpassed as the Lancers pressed on in their bid for the league championship and yet another tournament berth. They were led by such talented players as co-captains, Scott Martin and Luke Staffier in addition to the wealth of underclassmen talent found in Dylan Ribeiro, Bob Congdon, Bill Gendrolus, and Paul Danforth among others. With such talented players as these, the Lancers can't help becoming a perennial South Shore league powerhouse.

Boxing out his opponent, Bob Congdon anticipates a pass from a teammate for an easy bucket.

Coming in for an easy two points, Dylan Ribeiro races out on a fast break.

Front Row: Co-captain Luke Staffier;
Middle Row: Dylan Ribeiro, Jon Lombardo, Co-captain Scott Martin, and Bill DiNatale;
Back Row: Bill Gendrolus, Ray DeAgrela, Rob Todesco, Paul Danforth, Doug St. Germain, Bob Congdon, Dave Sicard, Rob Simonetti, and Rich Marsolais.

GIRLS' CROSS COUNTRY

The finish line is in sight for freshman superstar, Kim Polrier.

Under Coach Rukstalis' leadership, this group of young ladies had a year filled with drive and determination. Every member of the team broke her best record. The outstanding running of freshman, Kim Polrier, junior, Christina Maginnis, and senior, Keri Charles, boosted the team's morale. With only one young lady graduating this year, the team is looking forward to a very promising '93 season.

After a long, hard race, Christina Maginnis, Amy Allsop, and Christine Rovinski relax and catch down.

Front Row: Kim Pairier, Linde Arnold, Amber Peters, and Kathryn Maher;
Back Row: Coach Rukstalis, Christina Maginnis, Erin Maginnis, Christine Rovinski, Keri Charles, Amy Allsop, and Deirdre Maher.

Proudly watching their team warm up are Coach Rukstalis and his two captains, Christina Maginnis and Keri Charles.

The boys' cross country team had the self-determination to carry them through a tough season with a strong league. With quick feet, they ran their way through all types of weather to rack up many wins. This group of young men also broke their own records of best time by many seconds. Led by superb runners like Joe Scherma and Eric Watters, the team is looking forward to a great season next year.

After a tiring 2.7 mile course, Joe Scherma paused to catch his breath.

Lapping to finish with very good times, Cliff Zawasky, Paul Chastenay, and Shawn Schillberg bolted towards the finish line.

Front Row: Shawn Schillberg, Matt Eveline, and Eric Watters;

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

With a look of determination for one of the top finishes, Eric Watters ran the finishing stretch of the race.

Striving to beat his best time and finish among the top 10, Dale Wiggins ran his quickest on the hamestretch.

SOFTBALL

With the ball in the strike zone, Randi Carine is ready to bring in some runs.

1992 was an exciting year for the girls' softball team. Facing tough opponents such as Rockland and Carver throughout the season, each and every girl had to give her all. The team's dedication and hard work won them an impressive record by the end of the season. This season the Lady Lancers looked to players such as Rachel Sayce, Randi Carine and Melanie Kiely to lead their team to continued victory.

The call is close as Renee Sayce tries to steal home.

BASEBALL

The Norton Lancer baseball team had an unusual 1992 season under the direction of Coach Mollica. The team finished with an 11-9 record. This was the first time the team missed the tournament while under Coach Mollica's instruction. The 1993 season will be a restructuring one with the youngest Lancer baseball team ever. Scott Naismith led his team as captain against their toughest opponents.

"Practice makes perfect," appears to be the motto of Lancer Bill Gendrollus as he worms up before a big game.

Striving to score one more run for his team, Dennis Lynch heads for home plate.

Back row: Coach Dave Mollica, Manager Mott Todesco, Bill Gendrollus, Keith Johnson, Jeff Ruff, Bobby Mills, and Scott Naismith.

"And you're out!" Keith Johnson completes the catch for yet another strike out.

Studying the field, Coach Mollica looks on hoping for more runs.

BOYS' TENNIS

1992 proved to be a rebuilding year for the boys' tennis team. Stephen Maher, played first singles, and challenged many worthy adversaries as did the first doubles team comprised of Dylan Ribeiro and Craig Johnson. In the season they were the driving force behind the young team.

Watching as he hits one down the line, Stephen Maher, produces a winner.

Getting down far a low one, Mike Mackinder displays excellent skill while psyching out his opponent in a pre-match warm-up.

*Front row: Craig Johnson, Mike Mackinder, David Wagner, and John Caffey;
Middle row: Erik Brawn, Dylan Ribeiro, Marc Castrechini, and Donald Powers;

GIRLS' TENNIS

The Lancers finished another season under the leadership of Coach Terri Mullen. The girls' squad met with some tough competition in the South Shore League. The Lady Lancers have worked on improving their skills and developed a strong roster. The team will look to players like Kerry Boyd and Claire Sirais in their attempt to improve on last season's record.

Front row: Jennifer Hoys and Liso Stonovich;
Middle row: Dawn Allen, Melissa Cale, Kerry Boyd, Claire Sirais, and Amy Frazier;
Back row: Kira McCarthy, Kim Marks, Carrie Bachand, Donielle Costrechini, and Coach Terri Mullen.

Taking an os one of her players worms up before a match, Coach Terri Mullen offers some constructive criticism.

With perfect follow through, Amy Frazier finishes a volley.

Preparing for a match, Melissa Cale watches as her forehand cruises down the line.

BOYS' TRACK

The shot put, a contest of strength and arm, is displayed by Steve Falconer in one of last season's meets.

The always competitive Norton High School Track Team had high expectations for another successful season this year. Many talented athletes, including All-Star Robert Laham, Jon Lombardo, Darrell Calhoun, Larry Taylor, and Joseph Scherma graced the red track of Norton High School and helped lead a strong team.

With a powerful leap, Jan Lambarda prepares to clear the bar for the high jump.

After soaring through the air with the greatest of ease, Luke Adams tries to steady his landing.

The skill and determination needed for the hurdles is evident in Michael Wagner's form during the Abington meet.

Front row: R. Daly, D. Falconer, G. King, K. Bachand, A. Janczunski, J. Farrell, K. Callahan, L. Adams, and J. Bakanauskas; 2nd row: S. Mahaney, M. Eveline, C. Childs, B. Jackson, L. Taylor, J. Scherma, C. Zawasky, P. Chastenay, S. Schillberg, and E. Farrington; 3rd row: J. Araujo, C. Pray, D. Calhoun, J. Robbins, C. Biran, S. Falconer, and R. Bishop; Back row: Coach Rukstals, M. Wagner, B. DeCamp, R. Laham, G. Ramanowicz, G. Makrln, M. Shute, J. O'Sullivan, M. Zawasky, G. Taylor, M. Masane, D. Ryder, J. Bernada, and Coach Bachman.

The girls' track team looked forward to an improved and impressive season. The team looked for new recruits to strengthen their roster as well as relied upon the strengths of Christine Sicard, Kelly MacCaffrie, Maureen Kelleher, and Linde Arnold. With all this in mind the team was able to make a respectable showing against the powerhouses of the South Shore League.

With picture-perfect form, Lari Briggs cantidently clears same at the unforgiving hurdles.

"On your mark, get set, GO!!" Amy Ailsap, Kathryn Maher, and Sue Harrington get a good jump and are off and running.

Front row: Julie Simpson, Linde Arnold, Laura Wedge, Julie Wedge, and Katie Suydan.
Middle row: Sue McKenney, Mary Kendall, Lari Briggs, Natalie Talbatt, Jill Sheridan, and Maureen Kelleher.
Back row: Carrie Duh, Natasha Appt, Kristie Hupe, Elaine Maher, Stephanie LaCraix, Melanie Surgeon, Christina Maginnis, and Julie Hagstram.

GIRLS' TRACK

After an excruciating leg at the 4 by 400 relay, Abbie Wanamaker thankfully passes the baton on to the next runner.

As Christine Sicard has just found out, the worse thing about flying is landing.

GOLF

Packing their golf bags, hitting the fairways, and driving the ball as far as they can are the practicing techniques for these excellent golf team members. Under the direction of Mr. Nuttall, the goals for this team were to recruit new members and strengthen the team's roster.

Cooch A. Nuffoll, the inspiration of the golf team.

Driving the ball, Nathan Eckstrom hopes for a hole in one.

Chipping to the green, David Solarl goes for a birdie.

Blocking the volleyball, Carrie Zawislak and Jean Carlevale ruin the other team's hope for a point.

With the dreams of a pennant in his future, Scott Naismith watches his fellow Lancers in action.

During a half-time show, Kim Marks and Tino DeMarco cheer on our Lancer basketball team.

Dear Randy,

I'd like to take this time and space in your yearbook to congratulate you on your recent graduation.

Now I can finally relax, sit back and get off your back!!!

I'm very proud of you, Randy. You've come a long way. You have even grown up some. Be good.

Best wishes and good luck in your future decisions.

We are tremendously proud of you.
You've grown from that tiny black-haired angel to the lovely young woman you are today. Now go out into that big world and show what "the Sirois" is made of.

This is who we . . . Appreciate

For 1993, the Senior Class would like to thank all the members of the faculty in Norton High School. We feel that the entire staff has contributed to our growth as a class and as individuals, and has made a great difference in our lives. We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their encouragement, their understanding, and their dedication that has been so beneficial. Every faculty member has influenced each one of us in their own special way.

In addition, we'd also like to give a special thanks to Mrs. Boucher, Mr. Hickey, Mr. Maher, Ms. Rogers, and Mrs. Russell for their patience and dedication over the past four years as our advisers. For their words of advice and encouragement, we would also like to thank Mrs. Cady, Mr. Kleser, and Mr. Tellier.

Thank You!
